Playing with Poetry

with Cristy Watson

Join facilitator, Cristy Watson, for a fun and interactive session of creating poetry! This workshop is for everyone, including those who are new to poetry and those who are experienced poets. During this two-hour session, attendees will have an opportunity to ‘play with poetry’ using a variety of engaging activities and prompts to boost their writing. Both supplies, and inspiration, will be provided. You need only bring your curiosity and enthusiasm.
